

Announcement: NIAAA offers a second interactive online course is now available.

The NIAAA is happy to announce that our second interactive online course is now available! LTC 501: Guiding Foundations and Philosophies is available in the NIAAA Classroom as an interactive online course you can take on your own time, at your own pace, and wherever you would like. This four-hour course includes a digital resource manual, an interactive teaching style, instructional videos and more to help make the learning process easy and convenient for you.

The flagship course of Leadership Training serves as an overview for interscholastic athletic administration. This course introduces the philosophy of educational athletics then focuses on the roles of the NIAAA, the NFHS, State Athletic Administrator's Associations, and the State Athletic/Activity Associations. The course also previews the NIAAA Leadership Training and Certification Programs. It is a prerequisite for all four levels of certification and includes study materials for the CAA Certification.

To access this course, please login to the member portal and select "Classroom" then "Enter the Classroom" from the black menu bar. The course is available in the Professional Development Academy section of the Classroom with a cost of $125 for members and $210 for non-members.

Check back regularly as we continue to release more courses in this new format.
