

LTC 508 is available now in the Classroom

We are happy to announce that our fifth interactive online course is now available!

LTC 508: Legal Issues III (Hazing, Constitutional Law, Disabilities Law, & Employment & Labor Law) is available in the NIAAA Classroom as an interactive online course you can take on your own time, at your own pace, and wherever you would like. This four-hour course includes a digital manual, an interactive teaching style, instructional videos and more to help make the learning process easy and convenient for you.

This course provides in-depth coverage of the legal standards governing hazing in interscholastic athletics programs and strategies for developing, implementing, and documenting an effective anti-hazing policy, along with extensive coverage of the constitutional rights of student-athletes that must be respected by schools when sanctioning athletes for misconduct, the impact of federal disabilities legislation on school sports programs, and the employment and labor law issues related to the administration of interscholastic athletics programs, in particular the minimum wage and overtime requirements of the federal Fair Labor Standards Act.

To access this course, please login to the member portal and select "Classroom" then "Enter the Classroom" from the black menu bar. The course is available in the Professional Development Academy section of the Classroom with a cost of $125 for members and $210 for non-members. Also available in the Classroom are LTCs 501, 502, 504 and 506.

Check back regularly as we continue to release more courses in this new format.
