Andre Darnell Reed was born on January 29, 1964, in Allentown, Pennsylvania. After attending Kutztown University, he was selected in the fourth round of the National Football League (NFL) draft in 1985 by the Buffalo Bills. Playing wide receiver for the Bills from 1985-1999 and Washington Redskins in 2000, Reed won four American Football Conference (AFC) championships, made four Super Bowl appearances, and played in seven Pro Bowls. In 2014 he was inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame. In 2010, Reed started the Andre Reed Foundation, which aims to help underprivileged children reach their full potential.
